

The infra-red I-OpenR "lends a hand" for a hands free, sanitary disposal

The I-OpenR permits the hands-free, automated use of virtually any swinging door trash bin commonly seen in fast food restaurants, convenience stores, restrooms, food courts and doctor's offices. It also can be used in your home kitchen or bath cabinetry.

Each I-OpenR has a trash-level sensor with an LED display that changes from solid green to flashing red when the trash bin is near full.

Installation is quick and hassle-free, requiring just an electric screwdriver and a few common tools. I-OpenR operates with a standard wall-plug A/C adapter. The compact six-inch motor permits easy application in a wide variety of self-closing cabinet doors.
